UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF CROATIAN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE IN ZAGREB

June 25 – July 22, 2016

The University School of Croatian Language and Culture is offered to persons of Croatian background, as well as to any students who want to learn (more) about the Croatian language and culture. The University School may be attended by teachers of Croatian as a foreign language who wish to improve in the field of Second Language Acquisition (SLA) by participating in classes and attending class (Croatian as L2) designed specifically for them.

THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM comprises of 110 hours. This includes 95 hours of obligatory classes and 15 hours of facultative classes (each session lasts 45 min.). Language classes include grammar lessons and language exercises, i.e. The Croatian course is offered at three levels (beginner, intermediate and advanced).

All academic lectures and study visits on CROATIAN CULTURE & HISTORY make a part of the program organised by the Croatian Heritage Foundation.

- Academic lectures: Croatian Culture & History in the European & Global Context
- Guided study visits to museums, art galleries, cultural institutions, concerts, theatre & theatre performances and meetings with outstanding Croatian artists
- Study trips to Croatian Hinterland and Plitvice Lakes

Students who pass the exam receive a diploma from the University of Zagreb. They also receive a grade report based on achievement.
